It's a SOUND-BYTE Life

RYO Center and BMT proudly announce the publication of It's a SOUND-BYTE Life by Neville deAngelou

Paperback ISBN: 1419610325

Dramatized Audio Book ISBN: 0976912104

How quickly life can change!

Sexy, savvy and wickedly witty, Peena – the woman with the golden touch – wanders into the world of same-old, same-old and is stuck. Her remarkable lover disappears. Privileges of wealth and beauty diminish. She rapidly becomes irrelevant and is about to be eliminated.

Crazy, isn't it, how down on your knees begging for a hand, a sign, or wisdom to wiggle out of some mess, you look up only to see a hustler, a riddler and a clown? Who would you chose?

In this powerfully dramatized weave of mystery, intrigue, sex and trickery, exploring the exotic, if disparate worlds of a lover-boy's peculiar people, like Peena, we come too quickly to that inescapable fork in the road. No sign. No turning back. Just this much is known: one road leads to hell; the other is a hell of a ride. What must Peena do?

Whether you want to be entertained by mysteries music and sound (in the audio edition), match wits with LexGantor, be titillated by 12CXTor, gasp at the Crapper, be moved by the plight of Mother Cupboard Syndrome, have a good-old-belly-rolling laugh, or solve this riddle along with Peena, you are in for a treat with volume 1 this innovative Matchbox Mystery series. It's a SOUND-BYTE Life is written by Neville deAngelou, winner of the Timberwolf Award.
